Macmahon selected as mining contractor for the Dawson South mine

- Finalising new 3 year surface mining contract with Anglo American
- Will add circa $200 million to order book
- Commencement expected in July 2021

Macmahon Holdings Limited (ASX:MAH) ('Macmahon' or 'the Company') is pleased to announce that it has been selected to provide surface mining services for Anglo American's Dawson Mine in Queensland at the Dawson South operations, from July 2021.

Dawson South forms part of the Dawson Mine, an open cut metallurgical coal mine, which is a joint venture between Anglo American and Japan's Mitsui Group.

Macmahon estimates the contract will generate around $200 million in revenue over the 3 year term. Signing of the mining services agreement is expected to occur in the near future.

Commenting on the selection, Macmahon's CEO and Managing Director Michael Finnegan said:

"We are very pleased to be selected for the Dawson South operation by Anglo American, a leading global mining company. We look forward to working very closely with our new client to ensure a smooth transition period and continuity of safe operations. This new project further strengthens our growing east coast presence."
